Sunday, March 28, 2010

9:30 a.m.

Experience Holy Week in profound beauty as the Chancel Choir and string orchestra of the First Presbyterian Church of San Pedro under the direction of Allan Robert Petker present

Living composer, Mack Wilberg, has artfully constructed a setting of the traditional Requiem Mass for the 21st Century Protestant congregation. Incorporating New Testament and Liturgical texts in both Latin and English, his music facilitates worship. Through his music the listener will ponder the weaknesses of our humanness to the beautiful mysteries of life eternal.
